Many players appear of the opinion that Life Master and above players constitute the major backbone and lifeline of the clubs. Interestingly, in Unit 219, only 37% of the players have made Life Master. The remaining 63% are "Rookies" (defined for my purpose as anyone having less than 300 Masterpoints).

All too often, at the Unit and Club levels, we give a "Shout Out" to the Life Master and above players who advance to a higher level in the bridge world, but we play down or even neglect to acknowledge the Rookie players' advancements.

In 2015, Unit 219 has seen numerous Rookies advance in rank. On behalf of the Unit, I wish to recognize the following individuals for their continuing interest in and mastery of the game. I'm really proud of your efforts.

These folks constitute approximately 10% of our Rookie population. As our Aussie friends would say, "good on ya".

Bridge in the Panhandle

by Michelle Crane

Since the last issue of the SBN, there have been a pair of significant Rank changes: Charles Christmas (Tallahassee) and Daniel Jarboe (Fort Walton) have attained the status of Gold Life Master. Congratulations!

We are all familiar with "Charity Games" hosted by our local clubs and sometimes by ACBL. What may not be familiar is the benefit to a local church as a result of the playing of this great game of Duplicate Bridge. The church is Saint Andrew's By-The-Sea Episcopal Church, Destin's oldest house of worship. The game is the one run by Ted Gardner each Monday, Wednesday and Friday, said games being played in the comfortable surroundings of the church's original sanctuary. Those surroundings are even more comfortable now: the increased revenues stemming from Ted's Club have provided the church with a much-needed air-conditioning system.

DeVerle Little has reported on the progress of Tallahassee's entries in the Grand National Teams. After several qualifying games held at the local level, Connie Graunke, Byron Underwood, Becky Overton and Tom Mookas (all from Tallahassee and each qualifying individually) formed a team to continue on to the District level of competition. The District 9 competition was held in Pinellas Park (St. Petersburg). The Tallahassee group were the winning team! They will advance, to represent District 9, at the next level. Also scoring points in the GNT in Pinellas Park were Robert Henderson, Paul Boisvert, Joe Labat (of Tallahassee) and teammate Michael Wahl (from St. Pete).

Also in our Unit news are a pair of Nonagenarians.

Lil Vucovich may have turned 95 years old in April 2015, but she is known at the local bridge club for her skillful and aggressive bidding. She likes all types of games, including marathon dominoes, which she plays with her close-knit family. If you happen to be in her Niceville neighborhood, keep an eye out for Lil, who often rides her tricycle bike as part of her daily exercise routine.

Ernest G. ("Ernie") Wagner turned 90 in May 2015. Some years earlier – February 24, 1945 – he helped defeat the Japanese in the Battle for Manila, on Luzon.

According to General Orders #53 (1945), issued by Headquarters, U.S. Forces-Pacific: "The President of the United States takes pleasure in presenting the Distinguished Service Cross to Earnest G. Wagner, Private First Class, U.S. Army, for extraordinary heroism in connection with military operations against an armed enemy while serving with Company C, 145th Infantry Regiment, 37th Infantry division, in action against enemy forces on 24 February 1945. Private First Class Wagner's intrepid actions, personal bravery and zealous devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the military forces of the United States and reflect great credit upon himself, the 37th Infantry Division, and the United States Army."

“Ernie” do?

“When Company C, 145th Infantry attacked a heavily defended concrete building during the last phase of the Battle for Manila, Sergeant () promoted by the time he received the award) Wagner, a rocket launcher operator, was one of the first to reach the top of the building in an attempt to neutralize the pillboxes thereon. Immediately receiving fire from two enemy emplacements at short range, he advanced, heedless of his safety, through the hail of bullets and with accurate rocket fire, destroyed both positions and their crews. A third well-fortified pillbox still remained and without hesitation, Sergeant Wagner moved forward through heavy rifle, machine and grenade fire to within fifteen yards of the emplacement. As it crumbled, eight Japanese fled to a small ditch and continued their fire. Obtaining more ammunition, Sergeant Wagner moved across the rubble-strewn area to within ten yards of the enemy and accurately launched a single rocket which killed all eight. Discarding the launcher, he seized his rifle, and opening fire on the panic-stricken Japanese below, assisted his comrades until the last defender was killed. Sergeant Wagner’s outstanding courage and inspiring determination to destroy the enemy heedless of his own safety exemplifies the highest traditions of the infantry.”

Earnest G. Wagner won other medals: Two Purple Hearts, and the the Bronze Star with Valor.

After the War, he graduated from Virginia Tech as a Chemical Engineer, and over the years he managed plants at several locations in the US, and abroad. In fact, while managing a chemical plant in South Korea (as a civilian, after the war), he taught many Koreans to play bridge!

Ernie Wagner has played bridge since 1944, with some gaps while recovering from battle wounds, and when his wife, Nora (they were married for 55 years) wasn’t too keen on having so many women call him up to be a bridge partner.

Eventually, Nora relented, and Ernie got back into the game. After Nora’s passing, Ernie met Roxie At BRIDGE and they were married for 11 years. Ernie is a Silver Life Master, and he still plays 3-4 times a week.

Ernie likes to fish, roots for the Dallas Cowboys, and has two sons, Bradford and Marcus.

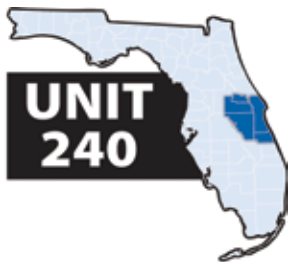

His Convention Card states that he plays Standard American. He is just being modest and humble. His card should say “Exemplary American.”

DOT DAVIS (ORLANDO) HAS SERVED as Secretary of Unit 240 for what must feel like ninety years! She never faltered in her duties or her support for all things bridge. After more than a decade of writing minutes, welcoming new Unit members, keeping records, reporting all details to ACBL and driving all over the Unit to attend meetings, Dot has chosen to cut back her responsibilities.

"I just want to take care of the Membership now"

Really? That's all? (LOL!) Dot is tireless in her efforts and we're blessed to have her doing 'just' Membership! Thank you for all you have done! We'll keep you for another ninety!

Never fear the Partnership Desk! Yesterday, in Orlando, a friend played with one of his regular partners from Las Vegas! Yep, Las Vegas! They found each other five or six years ago at a Partnership Desk at a National and have been playing together ever since!

They've done well together and are now good friends and 'favorite' partners.....Lesson learned? Don't be shy about "picking up a partner" – that person could become your new best friend! Go for it!

Unit 240 Tournaments ahead:

Orlando: July 24 – 27th

Melbourne: September 5 – 7th

Vero Beach: October 9 – 11th

STaC Week: November 30 – December 6th

Vero Beach: December 11 – 13th

Unit 240 Orlando Regional: January 4 – 10th

KEEP IT SIMPLE

by Paul W Dennis

I don't play much bridge anymore, but at one time I traveled extensively, playing with a different partner each night, often at a different club or in a different town.

There may or may not be a best bidding system, but when picking up partners, that theoretically best bidding system, whatever it may be, just simply won't work. You may think you know Precision, Blue Team, Kaplan Sheinwold or Fantunes but are you sure that the person across the table has the same understanding?

What will work is a fairly simple set of agreements that you can both remember. More match points are lost by bidding misunderstandings than are ever won through use of specialized agreements, especially in a casual partnership. With that in mind I suggest the following:

- 1) Play whatever it is that everyone else is playing. If the local standard is transfers with minor suit Stayman, then play that. If the local system is four-suit transfers, then go with the flow. Stick with the standard 15-17 notrump, and don't play featherweight opening bids.
- 2) If you have a choice of conventions pick the one that more clearly pinpoints the suits held. Meckwell or DONT may have theoretical advantages over Brozel or Cappelletti but the latter two conventions are simpler and whatever theoretical advantages Meckwell or DONT have will usually not manifest themselves over the course of a single session.
- 3) If you are the more experienced player (trust me, you'll be able to tell) play the system and conventions that partner wants to play. They may not be as good as what you would normally suggest playing, but partner will be far less likely to mess up when playing within his/her "comfort zone"
- 4) Exception to 3) above. If a convention or treatment is suggested that you either don't know or don't understand, plead ignorance and don't let yourself get talked into playing it. The first time I ever played with the late Joe Godefrin, a very good player, he thrust at me a convention card bristling with conventions and treatments I had never played. Eventually an auction arose where it occurred to me that his call was either a red raise, Redwood or a splinter. I guessed wrong although we landed on our feet. It turns out he had forgotten to tell me about 'the priority of conventions' in the event such a conflict in conventions should arise!
- 5) Stick with standard carding - lead fourth best as everyone knows the rule of eleven, but not everyone has mastered the rule of ten or the rule of twelve

If you work days and play your bridge at night, when you are not at your most alert, the above suggestions will pay big dividends as you'll be able to play much of the session on autopilot and save your concentration for those situations where it is most needed.

Thanks to the education department at Vero Beach Bridge Club there are seven pairs who had 70% games in the 0-20 point student game. Congratulations to our newest players. We are pleased to have a dedicated staff of teachers to help the new members to learn how to play bridge and to enjoy the game.

Unit 240 Managers and Directors

70% games are very special. If you have players with that percentage or higher, you can email a copy of the results to Jan Greene at ijnjgreene@bellsouth.net. The names of the players and their percentage will be in the Sunshine Bridge News. Include the date, your name and the name of your club. If you have a website please give that address as well.

WITH OUR NEXT REGIONAL AND SECTIONAL already scheduled for 12/14-12/20/15 and 2/5-2/7/16, all's quiet on the eastern front (Unit 243). I want to use this space to explain how we schedule tournaments.

First, your unit has to find dates that do not conflict with other nearby tournaments. For the sake of continuity, contracts are signed several years in advance to be sure the space is available when it is needed.

Sectionals (for silver points) are typically smaller and thus usually held at community centers or lodges. Sites for Regionals (for gold and/or red points) are based mostly on last year's table count.

Second, your unit has to find "worthy" venues. Venues vary considerably based on expected table count. As the largest regional in the country, Gatlinburg rents out its convention center. Most other Regionals rent out ballroom space from hotels.

Lastly, the need to change sites (venue is too small, or is in bad shape, or its necessary to move to accommodate other units) creates havoc for your unit's planners and the ACBL.

For too small, the ACBL has to "certify" a new hotel that they think can hold the increased turn-out. If the new venue clicks, Hallelujah! If it doesn't, your unit's planners are at work again negotiating for a new playing site, provided we're not locked in.

I hope this helps you appreciate a very small part of what your unit does to find the "best possible" venue, let alone host a tournament.

All the best,

Remembering Rhoda

The Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club mourns the loss of its longtime manager, Rhoda Schreider. For over 20 years, Rhoda was the heart and soul of the Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club. She helped transform a small bridge club into one of the best in the nation. She daily brought her love of entertaining and cooking into the club, welcoming all and providing a second home replete with holiday meals.

Always mindful of those less fortunate, her own birthday celebration became an annual charitable food drive at the bridge club. Every year we donated hundreds of pounds of food in her name.

During her time as Club Manager (1988-2008), the Club was among the top ten in table count and in 2002 won the Jane Johnson Club of the Year Award. She enforced Zero Tolerance and was quick to move beginner players out of the “small” room and into the open game, like it or not.

She was very pleasant to all the bridge players and hosted many holiday and charity events. Every weekend you could find her at the club preparing her fabulous Saturday supper and brunch on Sundays.

On June 7th, the club hosted a tribute to her life with a free brunch for those who brought in canned goods for the local food bank. Over 100 people came to remember Rhoda and how she made the Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club a happier place to play bridge.
